

Some symmetric group representations involving Stirling numbers

Sheila Sundaram

University of Minnesota

This talk will survey some occurrences of the Stirling numbers, of both kinds, in certain representations of the symmetric group. One instance arose from an examination of subword order and its homology. A second instance comes from recent joint work with Ayah Almousa and Vic Reiner, by considering the Koszul dual of the Whitney homology of the partition lattice.